

Large Telecom companies have monopolies in most of the US. 76% of US citizens have access to only one internet provider. The ISPs will use the power granted to them to effectively censor information and stifle competition. I urge you to please consider keeping the existing net neutrality policies to ensure that all Americans have access to free, uncensored information, which is so necessary to our democracy.

Thank you.